

Aladdin Saba

Aladdin Saba is a Partner at BMG KSA responsible mainly for the IPO activities and the equity research coverage of the Saudi market. He previously co-founded Hermes Financial, which grew to be one of the leading investment banking institutions in the Middle East. In 1996 Hermes Financial merged with the Egyptian Financial Group to form EFG-Hermes, where he assumed the role of Managing Director of Asset Management and member of the Board and Executive Committee until February 2002. He is a board member of multiple financial organizations including Banque du Caire and of EFG-Hermes as well as three international investment funds. For three consecutive years, he has been a member of the Board of Directors of The Cairo and Alexandria Stock Exchange. He is President, and a founding member of the Egyptian Investment Management Association, and also a founding member of The Egyptian Capital Markets Association. He is a board member of Egypt's International Economic Forum. He is also a board member of various corporations including industrial, environmental and touristic real estate development companies. He is a member of the American Chamber of Commerce, the British Egyptian Business Association, and the Egyptian Businessmen's Association, and head of its Stock Exchange committee. Aladdin holds a Masters degree in Business Administration (MBA) from the Wharton School, USA, 1986, and another Masters degree in Science and Engineering (MSE) from the University of Pennsylvania, USA, 1983. He also holds a Bachelor of Science (B.Sc.) degree in Biomedical Engineering, graduating from Cairo University in 1981.